The e-learners can have access to the CRITON wiki in order to see terms such as assessment, e-assessment, etc.

A screenshot of the CRITON wiki main page. The page has a white background with a blue header bar. The header bar contains the text "Page" and "Discussion" in a light blue font. Below the header bar is a horizontal line. The main content area is titled "Main Page" in a large, bold, black font. Below the title, there is a section titled "The following pages are available:" followed by a bulleted list of links: "Assessment", "Integrated Assessment Systems", "Quality", "E-assessment for learning", "Current assessment practices in EU: Why do they fail?", "Examples of ways to develop IAS", "Assessment Portfolio", "E-Portfolio", "Closed-ended and open-ended forms of e-assessment", and "Learning Management System (LMS)". To the left of the main content area is a sidebar with a white background and a blue border. The sidebar contains the CRITON logo at the top, followed by the text "Educational Content, Methodology and Technology Laboratory". Below the logo is a section titled "Navigation" with a list of links: "Main page", "Community portal", "Current events", "Recent changes", "Random page", and "Help". Below the navigation section is a section titled "Toolbox" with a list of links: "What links here", "Related changes", "Special pages", "Printable version", and "Permanent link". At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with the text "This page was last modified on 30 July 2013, at 09:31." and "This page has been accessed 2,314 times." Below the footer are three links: "Privacy policy", "About Criton wiki", and "Disclaimers".
